Commemorative Gifts Guide

As members of the Maronite Cathedral...

... we rejoice in our rich heritage which began in Antioch, where Disciples of our Lord were first called Christians. Saint Maron (A.D. 350-410) became our spiritual father and the first patriarch of the church. The immigration of the first Maronite faithful to the United States began in the late 1800's. Archbishop Francis M. Zayek was assigned the first Maronite Bishop of the United States by Pope Paul VI in 1966 and eventually, the two Eparchies (Dioceses) were formed in 1994: Our Lady of Lebanon of Los Angeles and Saint Maron of Brooklyn.

Bishop Gregory J. Mansour was appointed in 2004 to the Eparchy of Saint Maron. Bishop Gregory assigned Father James A. Root as Rector of the Cathedral in 2007, and we have grown in attendance and activity since that time.

Our Eparchy continues to grow: new missions are being founded, men seek vocations to the priesthood, and our people are committed to serving God and each other, both here and around the world. It is our privilege to call the Eparchy's Cathedral our home, where all are welcome to gather and celebrate our faith and heritage. Now, with the Capital Campaign, we have a very special opportunity to safeguard our church for our children, their children, and for all future generations of Maronite Faithful.

Commemorative Recognition

All gifts made to the Cathedral Capital Campaign will be appropriately recognized. Gifts may be given in your name or in memory of a deceased loved one. The following is a sampling of the type of recognition available:

- Gifts of $500 to $7,500 will be included on the Family Tree sculpture that is located in the Cathedral vestibule.
- Gifts of $10,000 to $20,000 will be recognized in the Cathedral Chapel of St. Rafqa.
- Gifts of $25,000 and above will be included on a special donor board in the Cathedral vestibule that indicates the specific item underwritten by the donor, e.g., the bell towers, Social Hall, elevator, sacristy, sound system, etc.

These gifts will be a lasting tribute to the faith of the donors and that of their loved ones. Please refer to the back page of this brochure for gifting opportunities.
