Rite of Blessing with the Holy Cross in memory of the Death of Our savior

The Way of the Cross According to the Rite of the Maronite Church

The celebrant enters the sanctuary with his assistant led by the processional cross draped in a dark cloth and two processional candles. He stands in the center, facing the altar and begins:

Cel: (stand) In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

All: ACT OF CONTRITION:

Oh my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee. And I detest all my sins because of Thy just punishments; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy Grace, to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

فعل الندامة

أيها الرب إلهي، أنا نائم من كل قلبي على جميع خطاياي، لأني بالخطيئة خسرت نفسي والحياة الأبدية، واستحققت العذابات الجهنمية، وبالأكثر أنا نائم لأني أغظتك وأهنتك، أيها الرب إلهي، المستحق كل كرامة ومحبة، ولهذا السبب أبغض الخطيئة فوق كل شيء، وأريد بنعمتك أن أموت قبل أن أغيظك فيما بعد، وأقصد أن أهرب من كل سبب الخطيئة، وأن أفي بقدر استطاعتي عن الخطايا التي فعلتها آمين.

The celebrant leaves the sanctuary, led by the cross and the candles, and stops in the center aisle facing each Station for the appropriate prayers. They move to the next Station during the chanting of the hymn.

Our Father-Hail Mary-Glory-

ACT OF CONTRITION AND LOVE

O Our Lord Jesus Christ, we are sorry from the depth of our hearts, because we have sinned against You with our bad actions, deserved Your punishment by temporal sufferings and the everlasting fire of Hell and lost the joys of Your Heavenly Kingdom.

We are especially sorry for we have sinned because we have sinned against Your Fatherly Love. O You who are the Good God and deserve the love of all your lowly creatures, We firmly resolve not to return to sin and rather, to accept death one thousand times than to commit one mortal sin.

We beseech You, through Your Love for Your Holy Mother, the Virgin Mary, and for Saint Joseph, Your chosen Just One, and through the wound of your Pure Heart, to grant us Your Grace, so we may live and die with it.

THE BENEDICTION OF THE HOLY CROSS

THIRD HYMN:

Qamat Mariam (Daughter of David)

Mary, daughter of David, stood under the Wood. Her Son, crucified by the soldiers, she mourned. The sword of grief has pierced her soul. And from his pain she fainted, so poor. Then his mother awoke And she cried, " Oh, my Son!)

"Oh my Beloved, my Son, speak to me! How can I not mourn, oh my Son, so naked? All your wounds burned my womb as flame. All your pains pierced my heart again. How can your mother live, Oh my Son, with your death?

You, your mother's pride, only fruit of her womb Father's only Son, His glorious image are You. Leaving me, like a knife, hurts me And your pain, like a lance pierced me. Let me die before you To not bear your misery.

Fruit of my womb, in what pain you must be! Your blood flows still, beatings you still endure. In your distress who will comfort me? Would my blood someone fill in yours? You are crucified on the cross. With more tears Your mother mourns.

What are these wounds in your blameless body? It stained your loveliness and dulled your beauty. The light of your face grew pale and dreary. Your sadness, my heart, melting; Your sufferings, my body fading.

Oh Jesus' Mother! Oh Kind Father's Daughter! Oh Spouse of the Spirit, Holy and none greater! Make us share the passion of Christ. And adorn us with the grace of our God. We will serve you in every age For all time and all days. Qamat Maryam bentoo Dawood heza'al ood tandub ebnaha almasloob be-eyedee l'junood. The celebrant blesses the congregation with the Holy Cross, three times proclaiming:

Cel: May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you always, May the Memory and Power of His Holy Passion overflow in your hearts> May the mark of His Holy Cross protect you from all harm.

In the Name of the Father+ And of the Son+ And of the Holy Spirit

Cong: Amen

After the blessing, the Celebrant bows before the Holy Cross and leaves the Sanctuary without incensing, while the congregation sings an appropriate hymn.

Closing Hymn: Wahabeebee

O My Son, o My Beloved See the plight love brings You to. Who has seen you and not mourned you? You! You are the Redeemer! O my Love, what kind of guilt Has the slave made his king bear? They disfigured you and mamed you With no hope for any cure Look on me daughter of Sion Crushed beneath this mighty wave. Anguish fills my very marrow And it leads me to the grave. There is none to be a friend now And this angry mob to brave. For the suffring I endure.

When in the garden at night The Redeemer did bow down Whlie the earth echoed His plight, The source of all revernt sound. The trees of olives are crying And lips are calling for Him.
